

RULES AND REGULATIONS OF THE COLONY CONDOMINIUM TRUST

Pursuant to Article V, Section 5 of the By-Laws, and for the benefit of all Unit Owners and the Association, the Trustees, on September 21, 2018, have adopted the following Rules and Regulations regarding the Units and Common Elements:

1. Definitions

a) Resident Unit Owner: A person who owns a condominium unit and uses it for his or her primary or secondary residence.

b) Non-resident Unit Owner: A person who leases his or her unit to a tenant and in so doing (under the by-laws) relinquishes his/her facilities privileges.

c) Tenant: A person who leases a unit from an owner for not less than 30 days. In so doing a tenant assumes the facilities privileges of the owner and also the responsibility of adhering to the rules and regulation established hereunder.

d) Guest: A person other than an owner or tenant. Guests, regardless of age, must always be accompanied by their host (owner or tenant) while using the facilities.

e) Temporary Resident: A guest who, with the owner's permission, occupies a unit during the owner's absence. Such guests may use the facilities but may not act as hosts and invite other guests.

f) Other Residents: Children of the owners or tenants. They may use the facilities, subject to posted rules but may not act as hosts and invite other guests.

2. No unit shall be used for any purpose other than as a dwelling by one (1) family unit, or a maximum of six (6) persons unrelated by blood or marriage.

3. No business activities of any nature shall be conducted in any unit.

4. Units may be leased for use by persons other than the owner, provided that:

- (i) the lease is in writing and a copy thereof is filed with the management;
- (ii) the lease is for not less than the entire unit;
- (iii) the lease is not for transient or hotel purposes;
- (iv) the term of any such lease is for not less than thirty (30) days;
- (v) such leasing is specifically made subject to the provisions of the Master Deed, the Condominium Trust and all By-Laws and Rules and Regulations established thereunder and provides that any failure to comply with the terms of such documents shall be a default thereunder; and
- (vi) such lessee executes a written agreement directly with the Trustees of the Condominium Trust in which he/she specifically agrees to observe and be bound by the same.

5. One (1) dog or one (1) cat shall be allowed in any unit unless noisome or offensive to occupants of other units and shall be leashed or caged whenever on Condominium premises outside the interior of the owner's unit. Dog owners must remove their dog's feces immediately. Neither dogs nor cats shall be allowed to run free on common property. Violators are subject to appropriate fines or such other sanctions as the Board of Trustees may determine.

5a. Pets, except for service animals, are allowed only for resident unit owners and not for non-resident owners, tenants, guests, temporary residents or other residents as defined in the Rules and Regulations.

6. The architectural integrity of the buildings and units shall be preserved without modification and, to that end without limiting the generality of the foregoing and without the prior written approval of the Board of Trustees, no awning, screen, antenna, sign, banner, clothesline, doghouse or any other such device may be erected outside of the buildings on common areas. No exterior change, addition, structure, projection, decoration or other feature shall be erected or placed upon or attached to any such unit or any part thereof; nor shall there be any addition or change or replacement of any exterior light, door knocker or other exterior part of any unit nor on the interior surface of any window. Additional front door styles and front door paint colors have been approved, see the Property Manager for details. A hook for a hanging plant or flower pot may be installed from the second story overhang between the kitchen window and the front door, but any damage caused by improper installation will be the sole responsibility of the unit owner. The provisions of this paragraph shall not, however, restrict the right of unit owners to decorate the interiors of their units as they may desire. It is provided further that, each unit owner or tenant may personalize a space under the front exterior light, not to exceed eighteen (18) inches on a side if not deemed objectionable by the Board of Trustees.

7. All maintenance and use by unit owners of all facilities shall be done so as to preserve the appearance and character of the same and of the grounds and buildings without modification.

8. All use and maintenance of units shall be conducted in a manner consistent with the comfort and convenience of the occupants of other units and in accordance with the provisions promulgated from time to time by the Board Trustees and in accordance of the By-Laws.

9. No improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of units or any part thereof and all applicable laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all government bodies having jurisdiction thereof shall be strictly observed by all unit owners.

10. No boat, trailer, camper, pick-up truck, van, motorcycle, unregistered and/or uninspected motor vehicle or any vehicle other than a private passenger vehicle shall be stored, maintained or parked on the property. The Trustees may, but need not, designate areas for the storage of otherwise excluded boats and vehicles. No vehicle of any description shall be driven or parked on the common areas other than the paved roadways. Guests must also abide by all provisions of this rule. While the Trustees have designated parking areas for certain excluded vehicles, no school bus, dump truck, flat-bed truck, recreational vehicle, box truck, cherry picker or similar vehicle may be parked on the Colony property at any time. Any boat, trailer, camper or other vehicle parked in violation of this rule will be towed off the property at the risk and expense of the owner of such vehicle.

11. Parking spaces are assigned on a pre-determined basis with numbers placed on such spaces corresponding to the related unit number. Guest spaces are provided on a first-come-first-served basis.

12. Personal property shall not be stored or abandoned on the property except as permitted in assigned areas.

13. No patio or deck shall be decorated or enclosed or covered by any awning, screen, wall or otherwise without the consent, in writing, by the Board of Trustees or its representative.

14. All windows and sliding doors must be draped or must have white or off-white blinds. Draperies must be lined with white or off-white fabric.

15. No unit owner or tenant shall cause or permit to be caused noise or activity that will interfere with the rights, comfort or convenience of other unit owners.

16. All electrical or plumbing equipment, appliances or accessories must be installed and used in compliance with the standards required by the agency or authority having jurisdiction. The unit owner shall be liable for any damage or injury caused by non-complying equipment, appliances or accessories.

17. The trustees, or their designated agent, must retain a pass-key to each unit. No unit owner shall alter any lock or install any new lock on any door on any unit without the written consent of the Trustees. Where such consent is given the unit owner shall provide the Trustees, or their agent, with an additional key pursuant to its right of access to the unit.

18. The use of up to two (2) through-the-wall air-conditioners per unit will be allowed under the following conditions: manufacturers' illustrations and specifications must be provided to the Trustees for approval, which must be in written form. No air conditioners may extend through the windows. Portable air conditioners may be used, but their exhaust/intake hoses may not extend through a window.

18a. All ducted or ductless air conditioning systems must be approved by management.

Installation plans, including dimensions, must be submitted prior to installation. The outdoor unit must be compact. The sound level shall not exceed 55.0 decibels.

All outside tubing must be encased in an external conduit approved by the Board. No wiring or tubing can be placed under the slider. All plumbing and wiring must be done in accordance with current building codes.

All external air conditioning systems installed may have only one condenser. Units with a deck must place the condenser beneath the deck. Units with patios must place the condenser on the patio adjacent to the shed. Alternative locations may be considered by the Board.

18b. Units may be converted to gas heat, fireplaces, etc., with payment of a fee to The Colony Condominium Trust and written approval by the Trustees. Requests must be in writing on forms available from the manager.

18c. No unit may have a device for the disposal of garbage through the sink drain. Owners of any units having such a device shall be liable for repair of any premature failure of the septic system.

19. "For Sale," "For Rent," "Yard Sale" or other signs or window displays or advertising shall not be permitted in or on any unit or on common areas except for approved real estate signs used by agents.

20. Unit owners will not be allowed to put their name(s) on the buildings or common areas and facilities except as provided in paragraph 6 above.

21. All garbage, trash and recyclables shall be properly disposed of in receptacles provided for that purpose. Please follow posted guidelines. For sanitary reasons all trash and garbage shall be placed in plastic before being put in the receptacles. Because of the mechanics of the actual pick-up, no refuse shall be left outside the containers.

22. All residents and guests are requested to refrain, and to ask others to refrain, from walking on the grass areas whenever possible and to walk on the paved walkways.

23. Washing of vehicles and boats, working on cars and other vehicles, etc., on the common areas is prohibited.

24. Organized ball games of any kind are not permitted on the lawn areas around the residential buildings or in any areas other than those designated for such activities (e.g. the lawn area around the pergola).

25. Skateboarding, roller- or blade-skating or similar activities are prohibited within the Colony property, including, but not limited to: roadways, walkways, tennis courts, basketball courts, volleyball courts and badminton courts.

26. Unit owners are responsible for adherence to the Rules and Regulations of the association as summarized above and may be subject to fines and/or other legal action for failure to do so.

27. The Trustees reserve the right to amend, change and rescind these Rules and Regulations and to make such other rules and regulations from time to time as they deem necessary and desirable for the security, safety, care and convenience of the occupants thereof.

Any owner or tenant has the right to seek exception to, or modification of any specific Rules and Regulations. To do so, he or she may make a request in writing on forms available from the manager.

The foregoing Rules and Regulations shall be and are for the benefit of the owners of all the Condominium units and the Trustees of the Colony Condominium Trust as persons placed in charge of the common areas and facilities and shall be enforceable solely by said Trustees.

The amended Rules and Regulations were adopted by unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees on September 21, 2018 to replace those adopted by the Trustees on June 23, 2010, et. seq.

Massachusetts Condominium Law, Chapter 400 of the Acts of 1992 now specifically permits associations to charge late fees or interest for late payments of condominium expenses, and to levy reasonable fines for violation of the condominium documents.
