

The Colony at Brewster

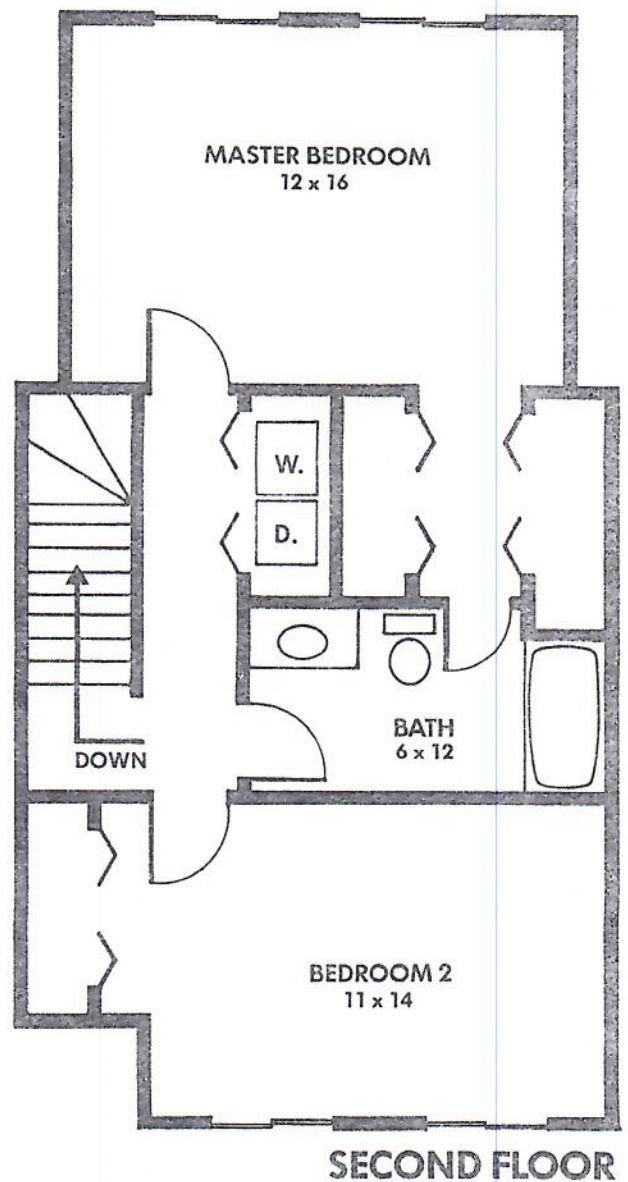

PLAN A

Designed for leisure living, Plan A (1,297 square feet) offers a large living room, dining area, designer kitchen with breakfast area, and a 1/2 bath on the first floor.

Winding stairs lead up to the second floor's skylighted master bedroom. Here, a walk-through closet area provides private access to the full bath. The washer/dryer space and the bath's other entrance are conveniently located between the master and second bedroom.

All dimensions are approximate.

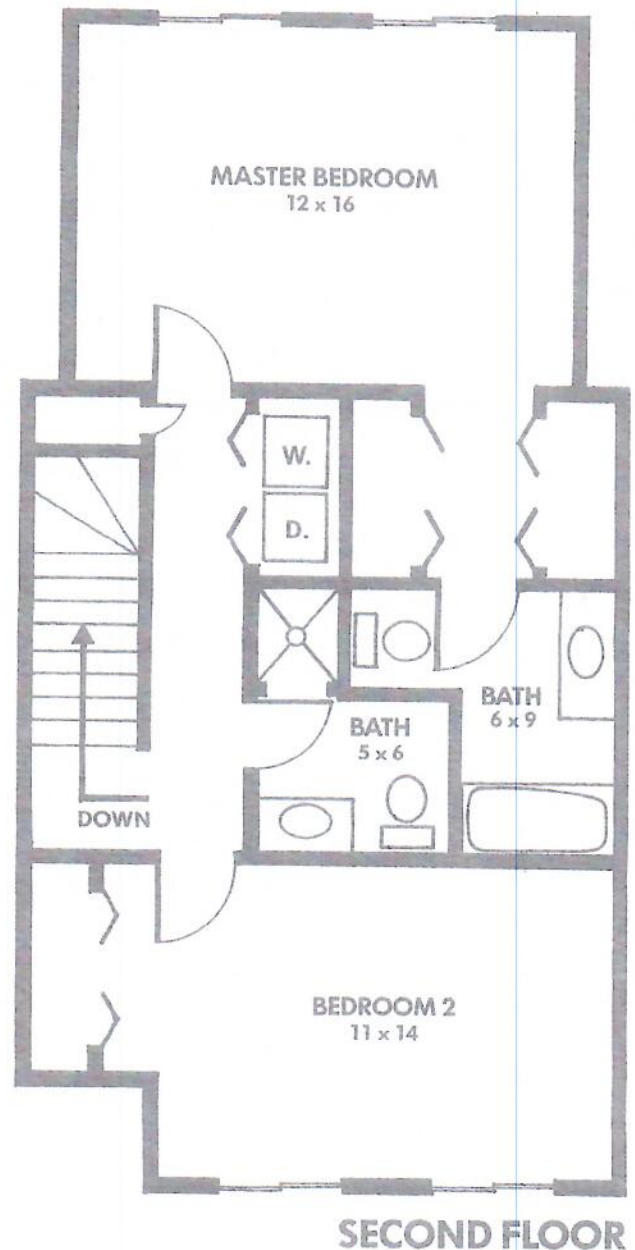

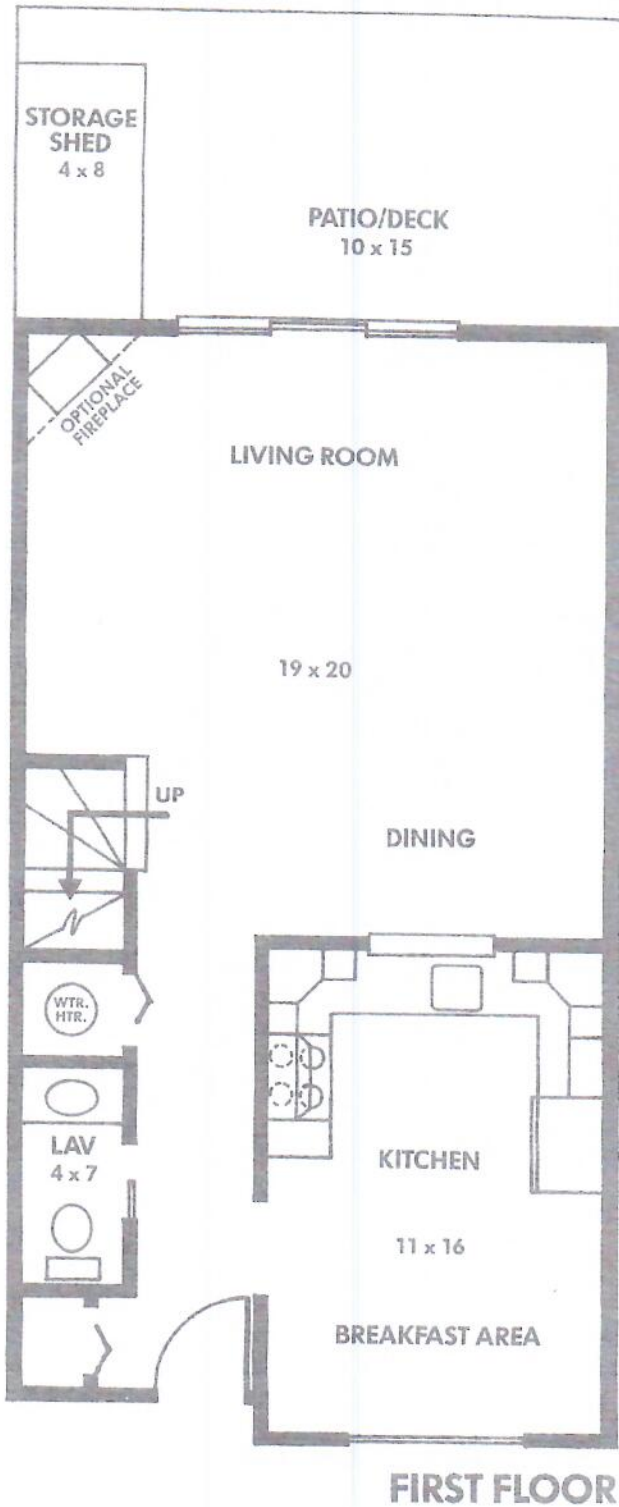

The Colony at Brewster

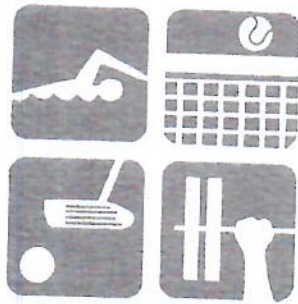

PLAN B

Somewhat larger than Plan A, Plan B (1,375 square feet) also offers a large first-floor living room, dining area, designer kitchen with breakfast area, and a 1/2 bath.

The second floor features a skylighted master bedroom suite with a walk-in closet and private bath. The washer/dryer space and another full bath separate the master and second bedrooms.

All dimensions are approximate.

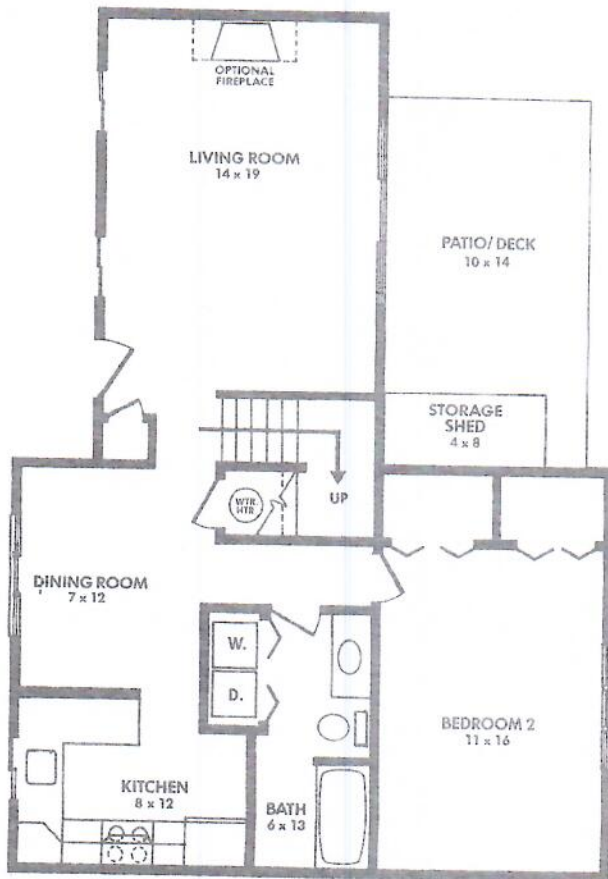

The Colony at Brewster

PLAN C

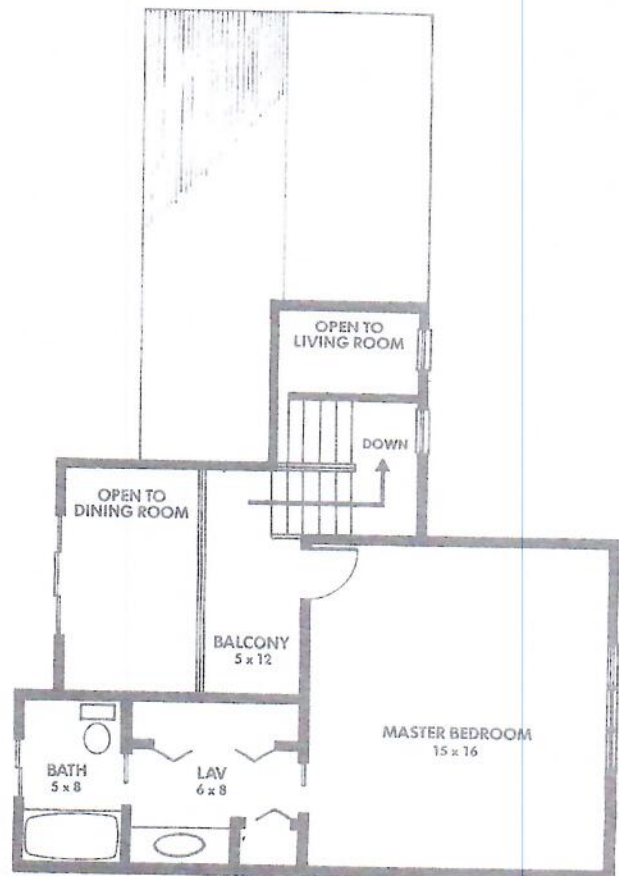

The largest plan, Plan C (1,510 square feet) provides one-floor living. A living room with cathedral ceiling, dining room open to the balcony above, kitchen, and bedroom with nearby washer/dryer space highlight this home.

The second floor offers a skylighted master bedroom suite with walk-in closet, full bath, and balcony.

All dimensions are approximate.
